Online buy-back service www.musicmagpie.co.uk bucks trend by taking on more staff to help meet demands of rapid business growth

29 April, 2009 - www.musicmagpie.co.uk, the UK's only cash for old CD's, DVDs and games website, has announced that it has doubled its number of employees to over 75 people in just three months due to the rapid success of its buyback services, and is looking to take on another 25 employees to meet growing business demands.

With many businesses making cutbacks and reducing their workforce, Musicmagpie is bucking the trend by taking on more staff to help manage the increasing transactions and subsequent workload being generated through its popular website. The site now turns over 300,000 CD's, DVD's and games into cash for users every month.

Commenting on its success Craig Dawson, head of operations for Musicmagpie said: "Since launching last year www.musicmagpie.co.uk has had a staggering response, and with each additional service introduced we have had to bring in new members of staff to keep up with the increasing amount of stock coming through the door.

"In addition to taking on more staff we are also implementing a new night shift rota to maximise productivity. This will help us to keep up-to-date with the number of CDs, DVDs and games coming in, enabling us to continue to meet the demands of our customers."

Musicmagpie currently employs 75 staff and will take on 25 new employees to work across various areas of the business including customer services, the warehouse and administration.
